

Georgia Council of Chiropractic Presents:

“NUTS & BOLTS”

Keys to Building a High Volume Principled Chiropractic Practice

Learn How to Become a New Patient Magnet:

- How to set up and have a successful New Patient Dinner Talk
- Learn the Art of getting exceptional screening locations
- How to attract dozens of new patients from screenings
- Taking a screening patient to a Lifetime Chiropractic patient

1st Visit New Patient Procedures:

- How to communicate chiropractic to a new patient on 1st visit
- Have new patients instantly referring family and friends
- Procedures to have families and 40%+ pediatric practice

When: Saturday October 9th

2 pm – 7 pm Nuts & Bolts Seminar

7 pm – 8 pm dinner break

8 - 10 pm Philosophy night (Open to all)

Where: United Community Bank

(Community Center Room-3rd Floor)

1001 Polk Street, NW- Marietta, GA 30064

Investment:

GCC Members : $99 per office Non GCC Members $149 per office
(Doctor Price includes all Ca's, DC Spouse and 2 DCs per office)

Students: Free for GCC Student Members, $40 for Non GCC Students

Space is limited! – Reserve your seat today!

Register online at: www.georgiachiropractic.org

Or Call: 678-627-0494

Dr. Bob Braile

Former president of the ICA and International speaker on Principled Chiropractic
Serving hundreds of patients per week for over 25 years.

Drs. Jeremy & Amanda Hess

Serving 1200 patients visits per week
Large family referral based practice

Dr. Dean Fuller

Youngest to ever see 1,000 visits a week and currently has offices seeing over 2000 visits per week.

Dr. Awais Butt

Serving 700 patients per week in family based practice

Dr. Brian Lieberman

Serving over 800 patient visits per week in large pediatric practice